Bring my soul out of prison, that I may praise your name: the righteous shall compass me about; for you shall deal bountifully with me. I. THE PRISON INTO WHICH SO MANY SOULS ARE CAST. David said, "In the way wherein I walked, the hunters laid a snare for me."

The Soul in Prison - Bible Hub

As I have said on other pages, we are in a prison that's in a prison that in a prison. Earth is a battleground of good & evil and on it is fought the warfare which results in the eventual release of the imprisoned soul. The battle is spread out over a series of lifetimes and eventually you make a choice of which path to follow.

involves a kind of violence to the higher part of our composite nature. The body is the "prison", the "tomb", or even, as some later Platonists expressed it, the "hell" of the soul. In Aristotle this error is avoided. His definition of the soul as "the first entelechy of a physical organized body potentially possessing life" emphasizes the closeness of the union of soul and body.

CATHOLIC ENCYCLOPEDIA: Soul

"Bring my soul out of prison, So that I may give thanks to Your name; The righteous will surround me, For You will deal bountifully with me," (142:7). Though David is not in a literal prison, the feelings of being defenseless and powerless to escape his persecutors, accompanied by his speculation on what may become of him have utterly bound his soul in fear.

Socrates believed that as long as a philosopher's soul is confined to their body, they will never be able to acquire the truth because of the body's need for nurturing. Socrates states that philosophers should live a pure life, and remain obedient to the gods until they release them from their prisons.

Spirit prison is believed by the Latter-day Saints to be both a place and the state of the soul between death and the resurrection, for people who have either not yet received knowledge of the gospel of Jesus Christ, or those who have been taught but have rejected it. It is a temporary state within the spirit world.

Spirit world (Latter Day Saints) - Wikipedia

The Soul sits in its prison (the body) awaiting its release into the light beyond the prison window ☐ the release of death. This echoes the painter's Spiritualist belief, that the body is merely an earthly shell, an encumbrance, which the spirit longs to cast off in death, to move into the sun of the spirit-spheres.
